The Teaneck Recreation Department is excited to once again offer Kids Yoga as part of our Fall line-up. Kids yoga helps to promote a healthy physical, emotional, and social development for children in a fun, calming way. Mindfulness practices will be introduced to help children become more centered, self-aware, and self regulated. This program is all about exploring and learning about yoga in a fun, safe, and playful way. Children will participate in this class by themselves without a parent/guardian. Please bring a yoga mat to every class.

Classes will be taught by Diane Petro. Ms. Petro has been practicing yoga for more than 25 years. She has completed 115 hours of Children's Yoga Teacher Training through RCYS-Yoga Alliance. Diane has been teaching kindergarten for the last 12 years. She has found that by blending yoga and mindfulness techniques in her classroom that she is able to help her students improve their behavior, focus, interpersonal relationships, concentration, and work habits.
