Creative Dance

Summer 2022

COURSE AT A GLANCE

WHO: Children ages 3–5

WHEN: Thursday: 10:15–11:00am

Class will meet on the following dates:

June: 30 July: 7, 14, 21, 28 August: 4
(dates subject to change; make-up classes may not be available)

WHERE: Richard Rodda Community Center
Dance Studio on the first floor

Please Note Children MUST BE the required age by June 27 or they cannot be accepted into the program. As this is a public building, we suggest you remain on the premises while your child is in class.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Creative dance is a class offered to 3 to 5 year-olds that develops technical and creative skills through the exploration of movement. Children will learn structured, fun warm-ups followed by more advanced movement vocabulary which they will use to create their own style of dance and expression. While they are introduced to the basic fundamentals of ballet, they will begin to build a strong foundation on which to continue their studies of all dance styles. Please wear appropriate clothing for moving; leotard and tights are NOT required. We strongly recommend that all participants be either barefoot, wear socks with grippy bottoms, or wear ballet shoes.

Class will be taught by Kerri Mather. Ms. Mather has taught and danced professionally in the NYC area for over 25 years. She currently teaches modern dance at the Nunnbetter Dance Theatre in Bergenfield, where she helps to produce Northern New Jersey's largest Nutcracker ballet every holiday season. Ms. Mather holds a BFA in dance from the University of Illinois: Champaign-Urbana.

COURSE OVERVIEW

The Teaneck Recreation Department is pleased to offer Hip Hop Fusion as part of our course line-up. Hip Hop Fusion is a form of dance expression which blends modern dance styles with hip-hop sensibility. The feeling and the beat of the music defines and directs the choreography. It combines hip-hop (a rhythmic form of urban street dance) with elements of Latin dance, Bollywood, belly dance and moves made popular by today's music artists.

Class will be taught by Saloney Ginger Chandra. Saloney began studying dance as a child and trained in ballet, tap, and jazz in her early years. She moved on to modern dance, competitive cheerleading, and hip-hop before concentrating on classical and contemporary Indian dance styles. As a young adult, Mrs. Chandra began teaching dance to students while simultaneously developing unique fusion choreographies incorporating multiple dance styles. She is a licensed Zumba and Zumba Gold instructor and a member of Zumba Instructor Network. Additionally, she is a Teaching Artist for the Bergen Performing Arts Center for their arts education outreach program (Beyond BergenPAC), where she teaches dance to school-aged children. Saloney is excited to share her passion of dance with the kids of her local community here in Teaneck.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Teaneck Recreation is proud to present a karate program for children ages 5 to 10 called Karate Kids. Students will engage in movement and techniques that will improve their overall coordination and motor skills. Under the guidance of Master Smyer, they will properly learn effective blocking, striking, escaping, and avoidant skills. With continued participation, students will earn higher belt ranks and be introduced to more advanced training such as katas, sparring, and nun chuck practice. The structured curriculum is designed to build focus, self-confidence, and leadership skills. Attire: A uniform is highly recommended but not mandatory.

Class will be taught by Master Steve Smyer. Over the past 30 years, Master Steve Smyer has devoted his professional career and on-going education towards supporting a more healthy, safe, secure and enriched life to all of his students and team members. As a 6th degree Black Belt, Master Steve Smyer specializes and teaches a diverse range of martial arts, including Taekwondo, Karate, Brazilian JiuJitsu, Hapkido, and Judo. He is also a master level fitness coach, with extensive experience in functional movement and development. Master Steve Smyer's youth programs have been developed and taught based on years of child psychology and classroom management. Through the success of his programs, he has produced hundreds of Black Belts, and with many children growing to become instructors, educators and leaders as they transitioned into adulthood. With the correct guidance and mentoring, students will receive the life-long benefits that martial arts training provides.
